

Udaya distributes masks and sanitizers in his farm village.

Udaya Goel (grandson of the ex-chairman of the Bilari Municipality- Sahu Sunil Sahai) visited village Nagalia Jatt to carry out his social activity. While maintaining social distancing he distributed masks and sanitizers amongst the villagers to ward off the Corona menace. Udaya, a student of Class-12 at The Doon School, Dehradun expressed a desire to his grandfather Sunil Sahai to do some social work in these dreaded Corona times. His grandfather advised him to pick up his farm village Nagalia Jatt, for this social work. Udaya, his grandfather and father Anurag Goel visited the village and distributed the masks amongst the village children and elders with great enthusiasm. He also advised the villagers about the importance of social distancing and told them not to go outside their houses unless it was very important. Abdul Aziz Malik, Ashfak Malik, Sushil Sharma, Ramnath Goswami, etc. were present on this occasion.
